

LIBRERIA NARDECCHIA – ROME
"Italian Bookdealers and Subscription Agents since 1895"

Contents

Preface	7
Introduction	9
Contributors	13
DORIAN BORBONUS, Organized Collective Burial in the Port Cities of Roman Italy	15
EMANUELA BORGIA, Foreigners from the Eastern Mediterranean at Ostia, Portus, and Puteoli in the Imperial Period: A Reconsideration of the Matter through an Analysis of Funerary Inscriptions	39
DAVID NOY, Electa mihi domus est Ostia felix : The Burial and Commemoration of Migrants at Ostia and Portus	53
STEVEN L. TUCK, Harbors of Refuge: Post-Vesuvian Population Shifts in Italian Harbor Communities	63
VALERIE M. HOPE, Life at Sea, Death on Land: The Funerary Commemoration of the Sailors of Roman Misenum	79
NIELS BARGFELDT, Unnoticed Diversity in Misenum: Revealing a Multifaceted Society in a Roman Harbour City	99
LAUREN HACKWORTH PETERSEN, People and Gods in the Necropoleis of Pompeii: Isis in the Last Decade	127
JANE HJARL PETERSEN, Protecting Me Every Step of the Way: Dionysian Symbolism in the Burial Culture of Roman Ostia	145
MARCELLO SPANU, Working and Dying in the Harbour Cities of Roman Asia Minor: An Appraisal of the Funerary Inscriptions	169
JESPER CARLSEN, Epitaphs and the Demography of the Imperial Slaves and Freedmen in Roman Carthage	195
JOHN PEARCE & REBECCA REDFERN, Port Societies on Rome's Atlantic Façade: A Funerary	211